TECHSPANSION RELEASES VISUALHUB 1.27

Support for new iPod nano and iPod classic!

Techspansion's VisualHub has been a runaway hit with Mac users from all over the world, from Andorra to Zambia. Video conversion has never been so easy.

With the agility of a caffeinated traceur, Techspansion brings VisualHub 1.27 with full support for the new iPod nano and iPod classic less than 24 hours after their announcement (and less than 3 hours after they arrived in stores).

Specialized presets are available for each iPod model, with a universal preset designed to be compatible with all Apple video devices at the highest quality possible.

VisualHub 1.27 is only $23.32 and is a free upgrade to registered customers...although they are certainly welcome to buy more copies if they'd like.
